TALENT SHOW RULES

REQUIREMENTS:

1. All performers must attend Seven Springs Middle School.
2. All acts must be no longer than 3 minutes total.
3. All lyrics must be school appropriate in every way. Bring all music to the audition for approval.
4. All costumes must comply with the school dress code.
5. If any changes need to be made to the performance they must be approved by a member of the PTO Board or principal. There will be no changes allowed after auditions and acceptance of the act. Final approval on all music and costumes will be at the discretion of principal.
6. Have fun!

INFORMATION:

1. The talent show will take place on Thursday, November 21st at 9am in the gym.
2. Entry forms must be turned in by October 17th to the front office or the PTO Box.
3. Auditions will be held the week of October 21st before or after school. Please indicate your preference above. We will try to accommodate everyone's choices, but due to time or number of performers, this may not be possible. We will inform you when the audition is scheduled, if there is a conflict notify us immediately. Not all performers that audition will be included in the talent show.
4. Dress rehearsal will be held prior to the show, details will be announced to all performers.
5. Parents/Guardians are welcome to attend the show, please use normal visitor procedures and sign in at the front office.
6. The PTO may videotape performances during the show, and have DVD's made. Parental/guardian approval for recording is requested and needed by signing above.
7. We will have 3 to 5 judges who represent members of our community. They will base their evaluations on the following: (showmanship, content, creativity and quality of act). Using a point system there will be first, second and third place awards.
