Yearbook Editor (OPTIONAL)

The yearbook is more than just a collection of photos — it tells the story of the school year and captures lasting memories for every student. As an editor, you'll be responsible for shaping that story through design, writing, organization, and leadership. Why do you want to be a yearbook editor, and what qualities or experiences make you a strong candidate for the role? Please write on a separate piece of paper for additional room.

Skills Ranking:

Below are four common characteristics that are important for a successful yearbook club member. Please read each statement carefully and rank yourself using the scale.

Choose only one response and mark it with an X or **✓.

	Strongly Disagree	Disagree	Neither Agree nor Disagree	Agree	Strongly Agree
Graphic Design: I can create visually appealing layouts, use color and space effectively, and design pages that are easy to read.
Computer Skills: I am comfortable with using software like OneDrive or other digital tools that could be used in the yearbook creation process.
Photography: I am experienced in taking clear, high-quality, well composed photos that capture meaningful moments
Organization: I can manage deadlines, keep track of role assignments, stay on task, and help the team when needed.

Yearbook Spread Role Preferences- Choose Your Top 5:

Below is a list of possible roles for this year's yearbook. Please circle your top 5 choices. These selections will help us understand your interests and strengths as we build the club.

Important Notes:

- Your choices do not guarantee you will be assigned that spread, but they will be taken into strong consideration during the assignment process.
- Roles marked with an asterisk (*) require attending sporting events after school for photography purposes. Please only choose these if you are available and willing to commit to those responsibilities. All game dates are listed on the school website.
- Do NOT choose any sports teams you are currently on or plan to try out for. This is to avoid conflicts and ensure full coverage of each activity.

Be thoughtful with your selections and choose areas where you feel confident contributing your time and effort!
